Says

What have we heard them say? What can we imagine them saying?

> It is a collection of information about airports, airlines and their routes etc...

It also includes Airline's name aliases,IATA and ICAO codes. It also shows active/ inactive status in a origin of the country Global Air Transportation Network shows airline sources to destination airports. and shows type of aircraft being used for that particular journey

JP Short summary of the persona

Increased Mobility: The ease of air travel has made it possible for people to travel long distances quickly, leading to increased mobility and the ability to explore different cultures and regions.

surrounding areas

Tourism Boom: Air travel has fueled the tourism industry, with more people able to visit tourist destinations worldwide. This has had economic and cultural impacts on both tourist destinations

Urbanization: Airports often serve as hubs for economic activity, leading to urbanization and the development of

and travelers

Does

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams? What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Technological Advancements: The aviation industry aims to develop cuttingedge technologies to enhance safety, fuel efficiency and passengers comfort

Geopolitical Factors: Political tensions, visa regulations, and international relations can impact routes, destinations, and passenger choices.

Travel Trends: Trends in tourism, business travel, and leisure activities can shape passenger behavior and influence destination choices.

Reduced Delays: Passengers want fewer flight delays and smoother travel experiences

Crisis Resilience: There is a need for the air transportation Network to be Resilient in the face of global crises, such as Pandemic or natural disasters

Cultural Exchange: People hope for air travel to facilitate cultural exchange by making it easier for individual to experience different cultures

Feels

